Simon Levy
CEO, RMIA

"We are truly excited to unite with RiskNZ in our shared mission to elevate risk management standards across the Trans-Tasman and Pacific Regions. This partnership represents a significant step towards advancing risk management practices and fostering excellence in our communities"

David Turner
CEO, RiskNZ

"RiskNZ and RMIA can work together to not only increase our knowledge within our ever changing, diverse and demanding risk industry, but also help influence and up skill individuals and organisations across these two great countries.

Use this opportunity to take some courses, learn new methods and skills, and help enable New Zealand to keep growing and also influencing in the global risk management space."
